
Screen Time and the Impact on Social, Emotional and Physical Health

Coast to Cascades Community Wellness Network

2018 Annual Regional Community Health Summit

Join us in exploring the various impacts of screen time and the subsequent impacts on an individual's social, emotional and physical health. The summit will feature keynote speaker Yolanda Evans, MD, MPH, assistant professor of pediatrics at University of Washington School of Medicine; closing speaker Pamela Weatherspoon, manager of diversity and community engagement, Legacy Health; and multiple breakout sessions.

Wednesday, April 18
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
River Center, Lebanon

Don't miss three special screenings of the new film, "Screenagers: Growing up in the digital age," which will be discussed at the summit. To view the film trailer, visit screenagersmovie.com/trailer.
